John, a determined kid in a wheelchair, wants to catch criminals when he grows up. But others discourage him because he has a disability. He decides to follow his heart. So John learns how to develop the gifts and qualities he does have and becomes a super crime fighter. Super Cyclist is a story that every young child will enjoy.

Author Dave Carl graduated in 1999 from Buffalo State College where he majored in social work. He uses his own wheelchair full time, but doesn't let his spina bifida define him. Through his work, speaking engagements, and seminars, Dave encourages everyone, adults and kids alike, to be all they can be.

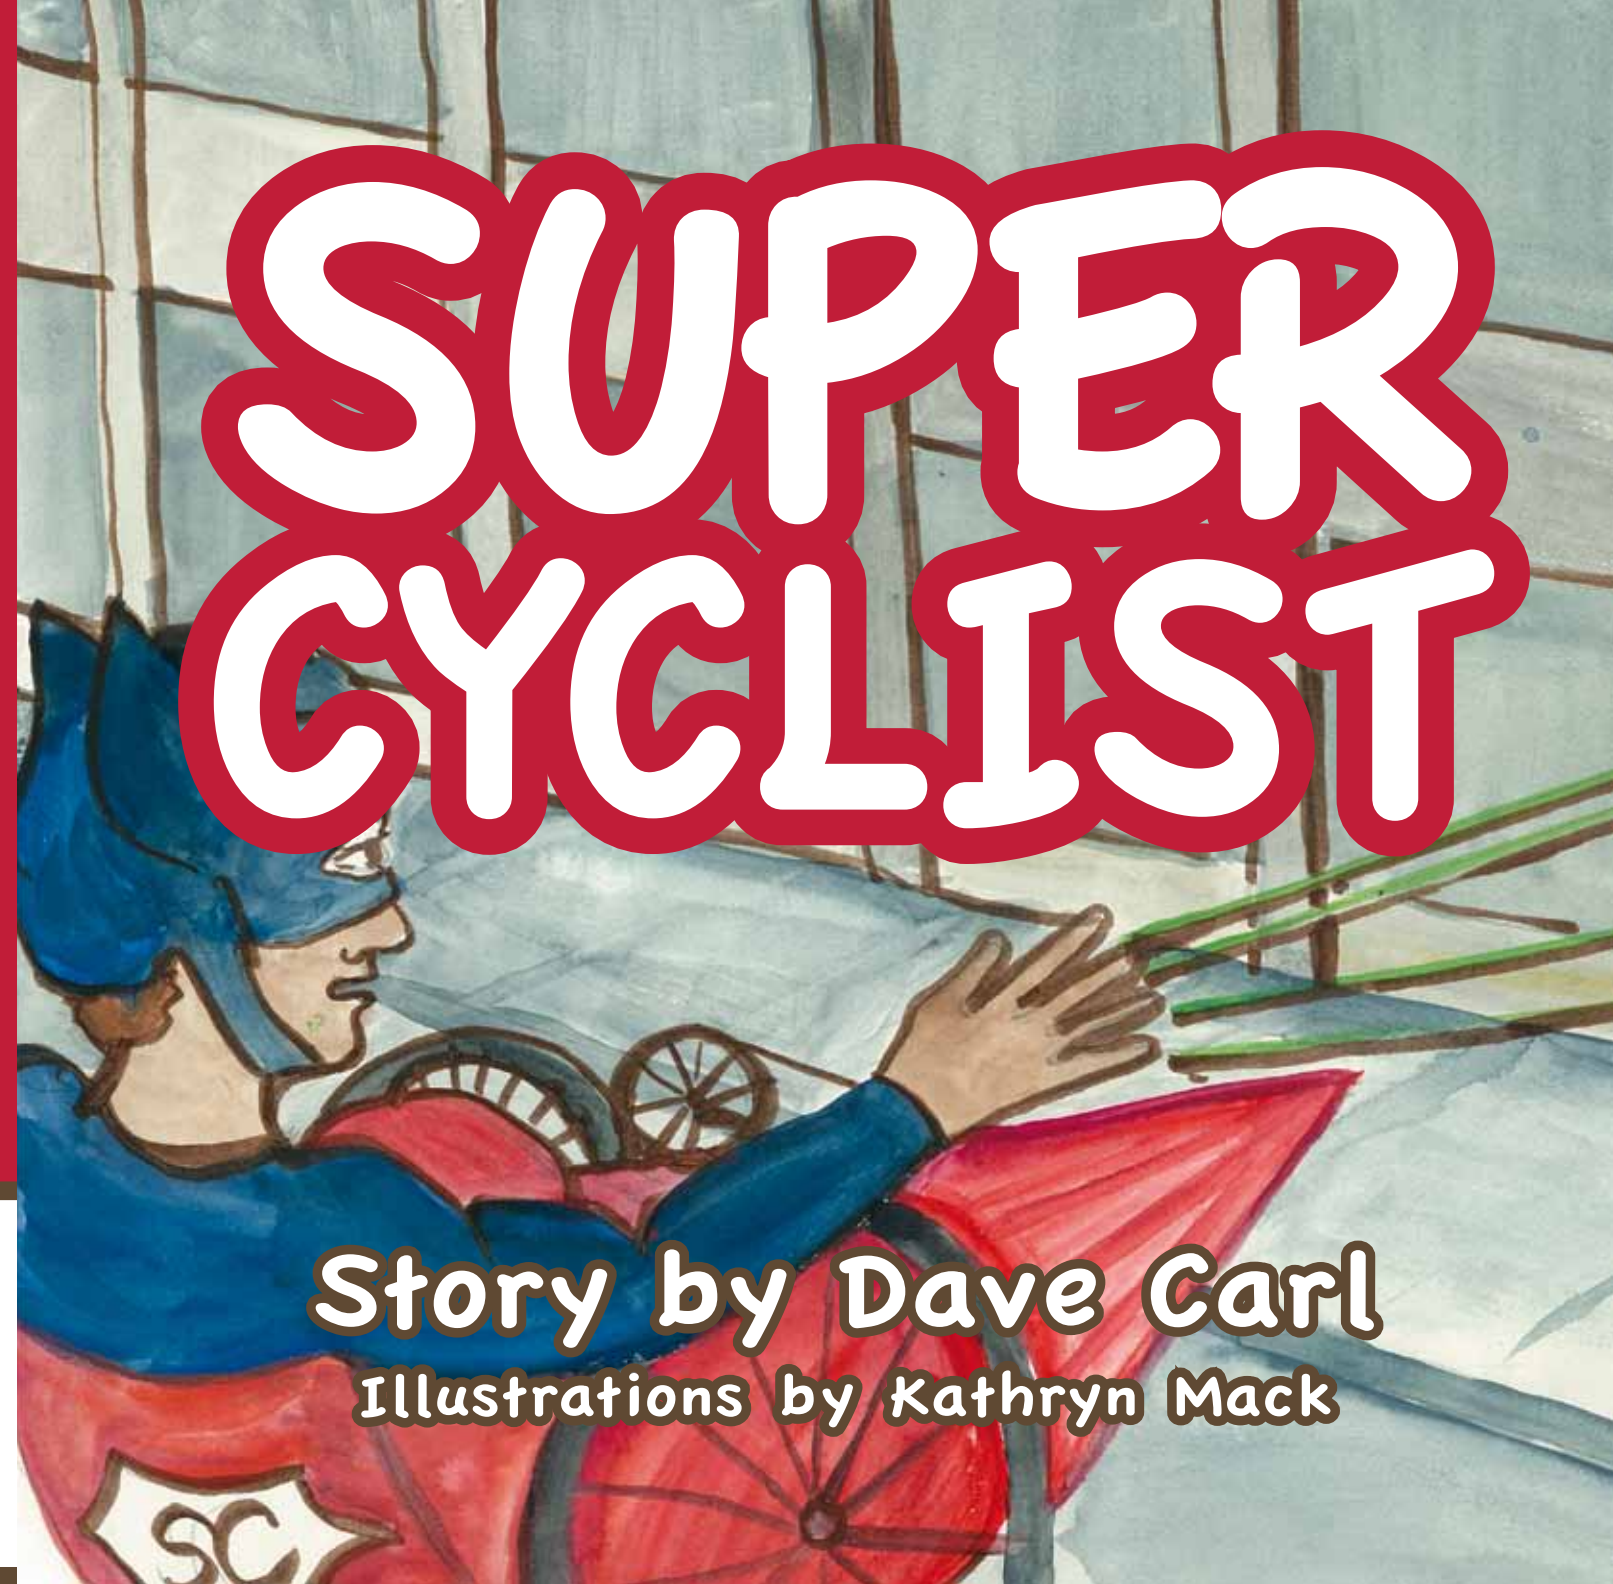

Five percent of all profits from the sale of this book will be donated to the Spina Bifida Association of America. Thanks for your support.

Kathryn Mack loves art, has been drawing her whole life, and has won several awards for illustrations. This is her first published children's book. She teaches college math in Northern Idaho and is legally blind.
